

MiMENTOR

Coach education specialists

A global leader in coach education

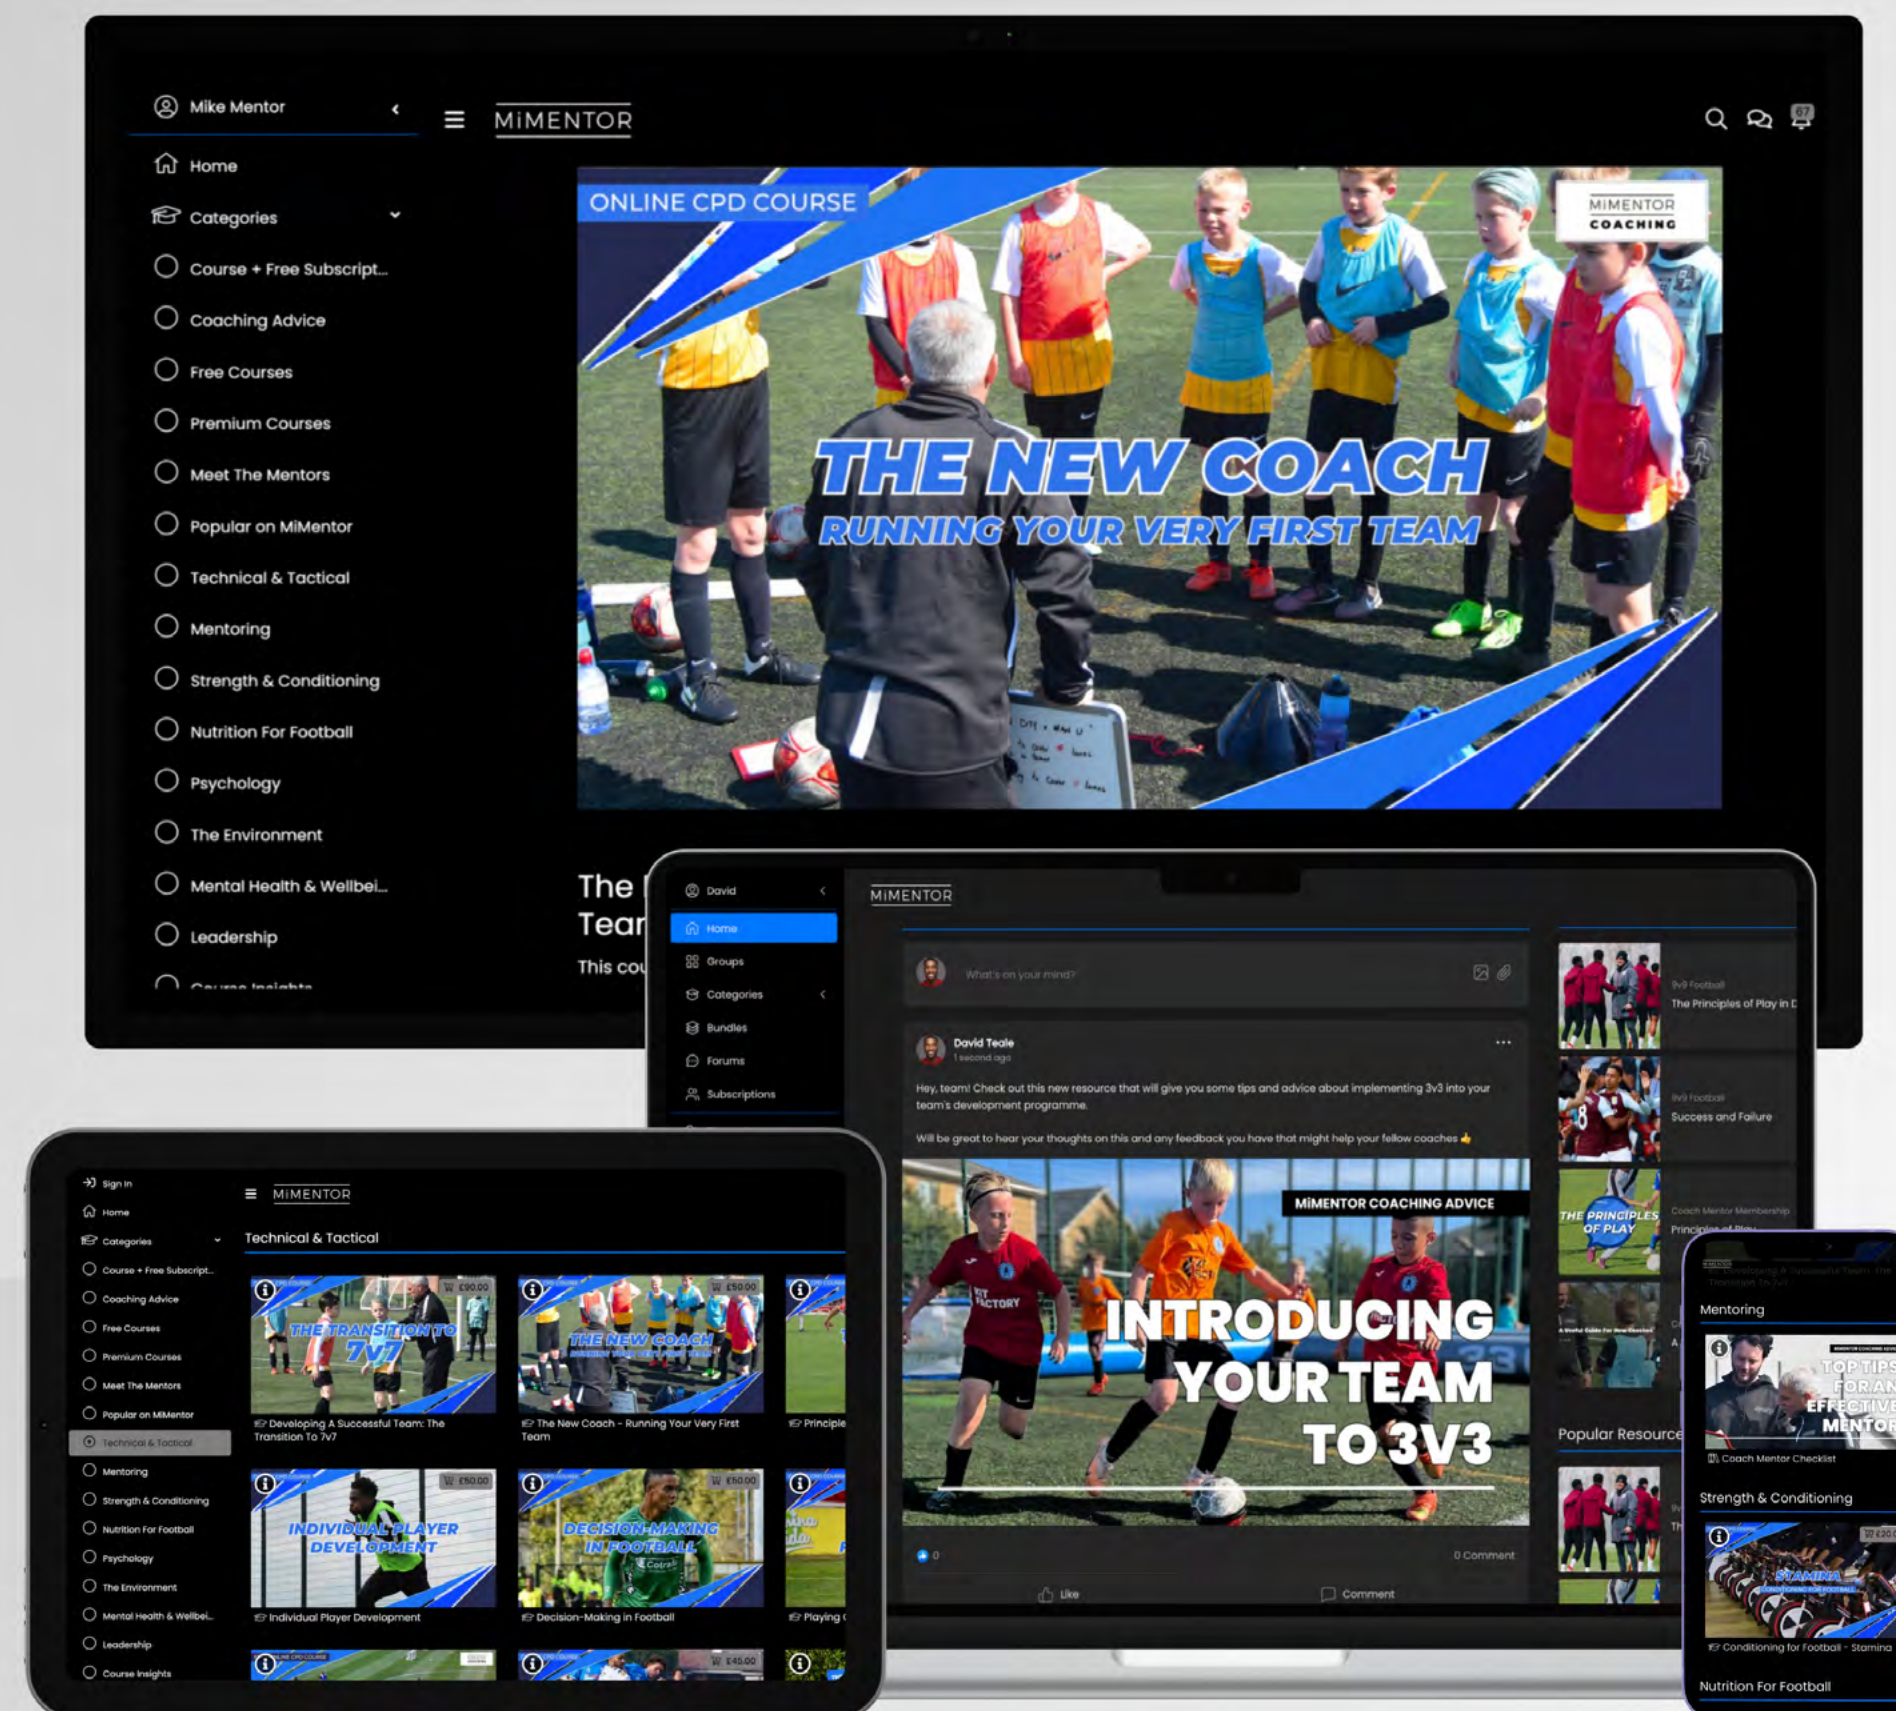

We exist to drive high-performance in athletes at all levels. We do that by equipping sports coaches with holistic tools that deliver lasting, positive impact.

Our educational pathways support both the physical and mental wellbeing of athletes, covering:

- Technical skills
- Leadership
- Mentoring

We build programmes of support around our clients' specific needs. You can use our accredited courses or we can develop bespoke content to reflect the nuances of your organisation and coaching set-up. This content can be delivered through your existing processes or our own cutting-edge digital platform.

From Premier League clubs to global rights holders, we're trusted to educate the coaches of some of the world's biggest sporting brands – helping them deliver positive impact on athletes and coaching staff at all levels.

Our pathways

Our pathways approach enables you to select the best courses for your coaches' needs, giving them the holistic tools to unlock high-performance.

Delivery built around your needs

We are coach education specialists, which allows us to build a programme of support around your specific needs. You can use our accredited courses to complement your existing content, or we can develop bespoke programmes to reflect the nuances of your organisation and coaching set-up. This content can be delivered through your existing processes or our own cutting-edge digital platform.

Accredited courses

Our accredited courses cover a range of topics, and mix online modules as well as in-person delivery if required.

Bespoke content

Pick your pathway, and we'll create courses built around the areas you want to focus on.

Digital platform

If you don't have a digital learning platform then use ours. Access content on-demand, anywhere, anytime and in any format. Our inbuilt analytics give you constant insight into users' learning and engagement. Learn more below.

Cutting-edge digital platform

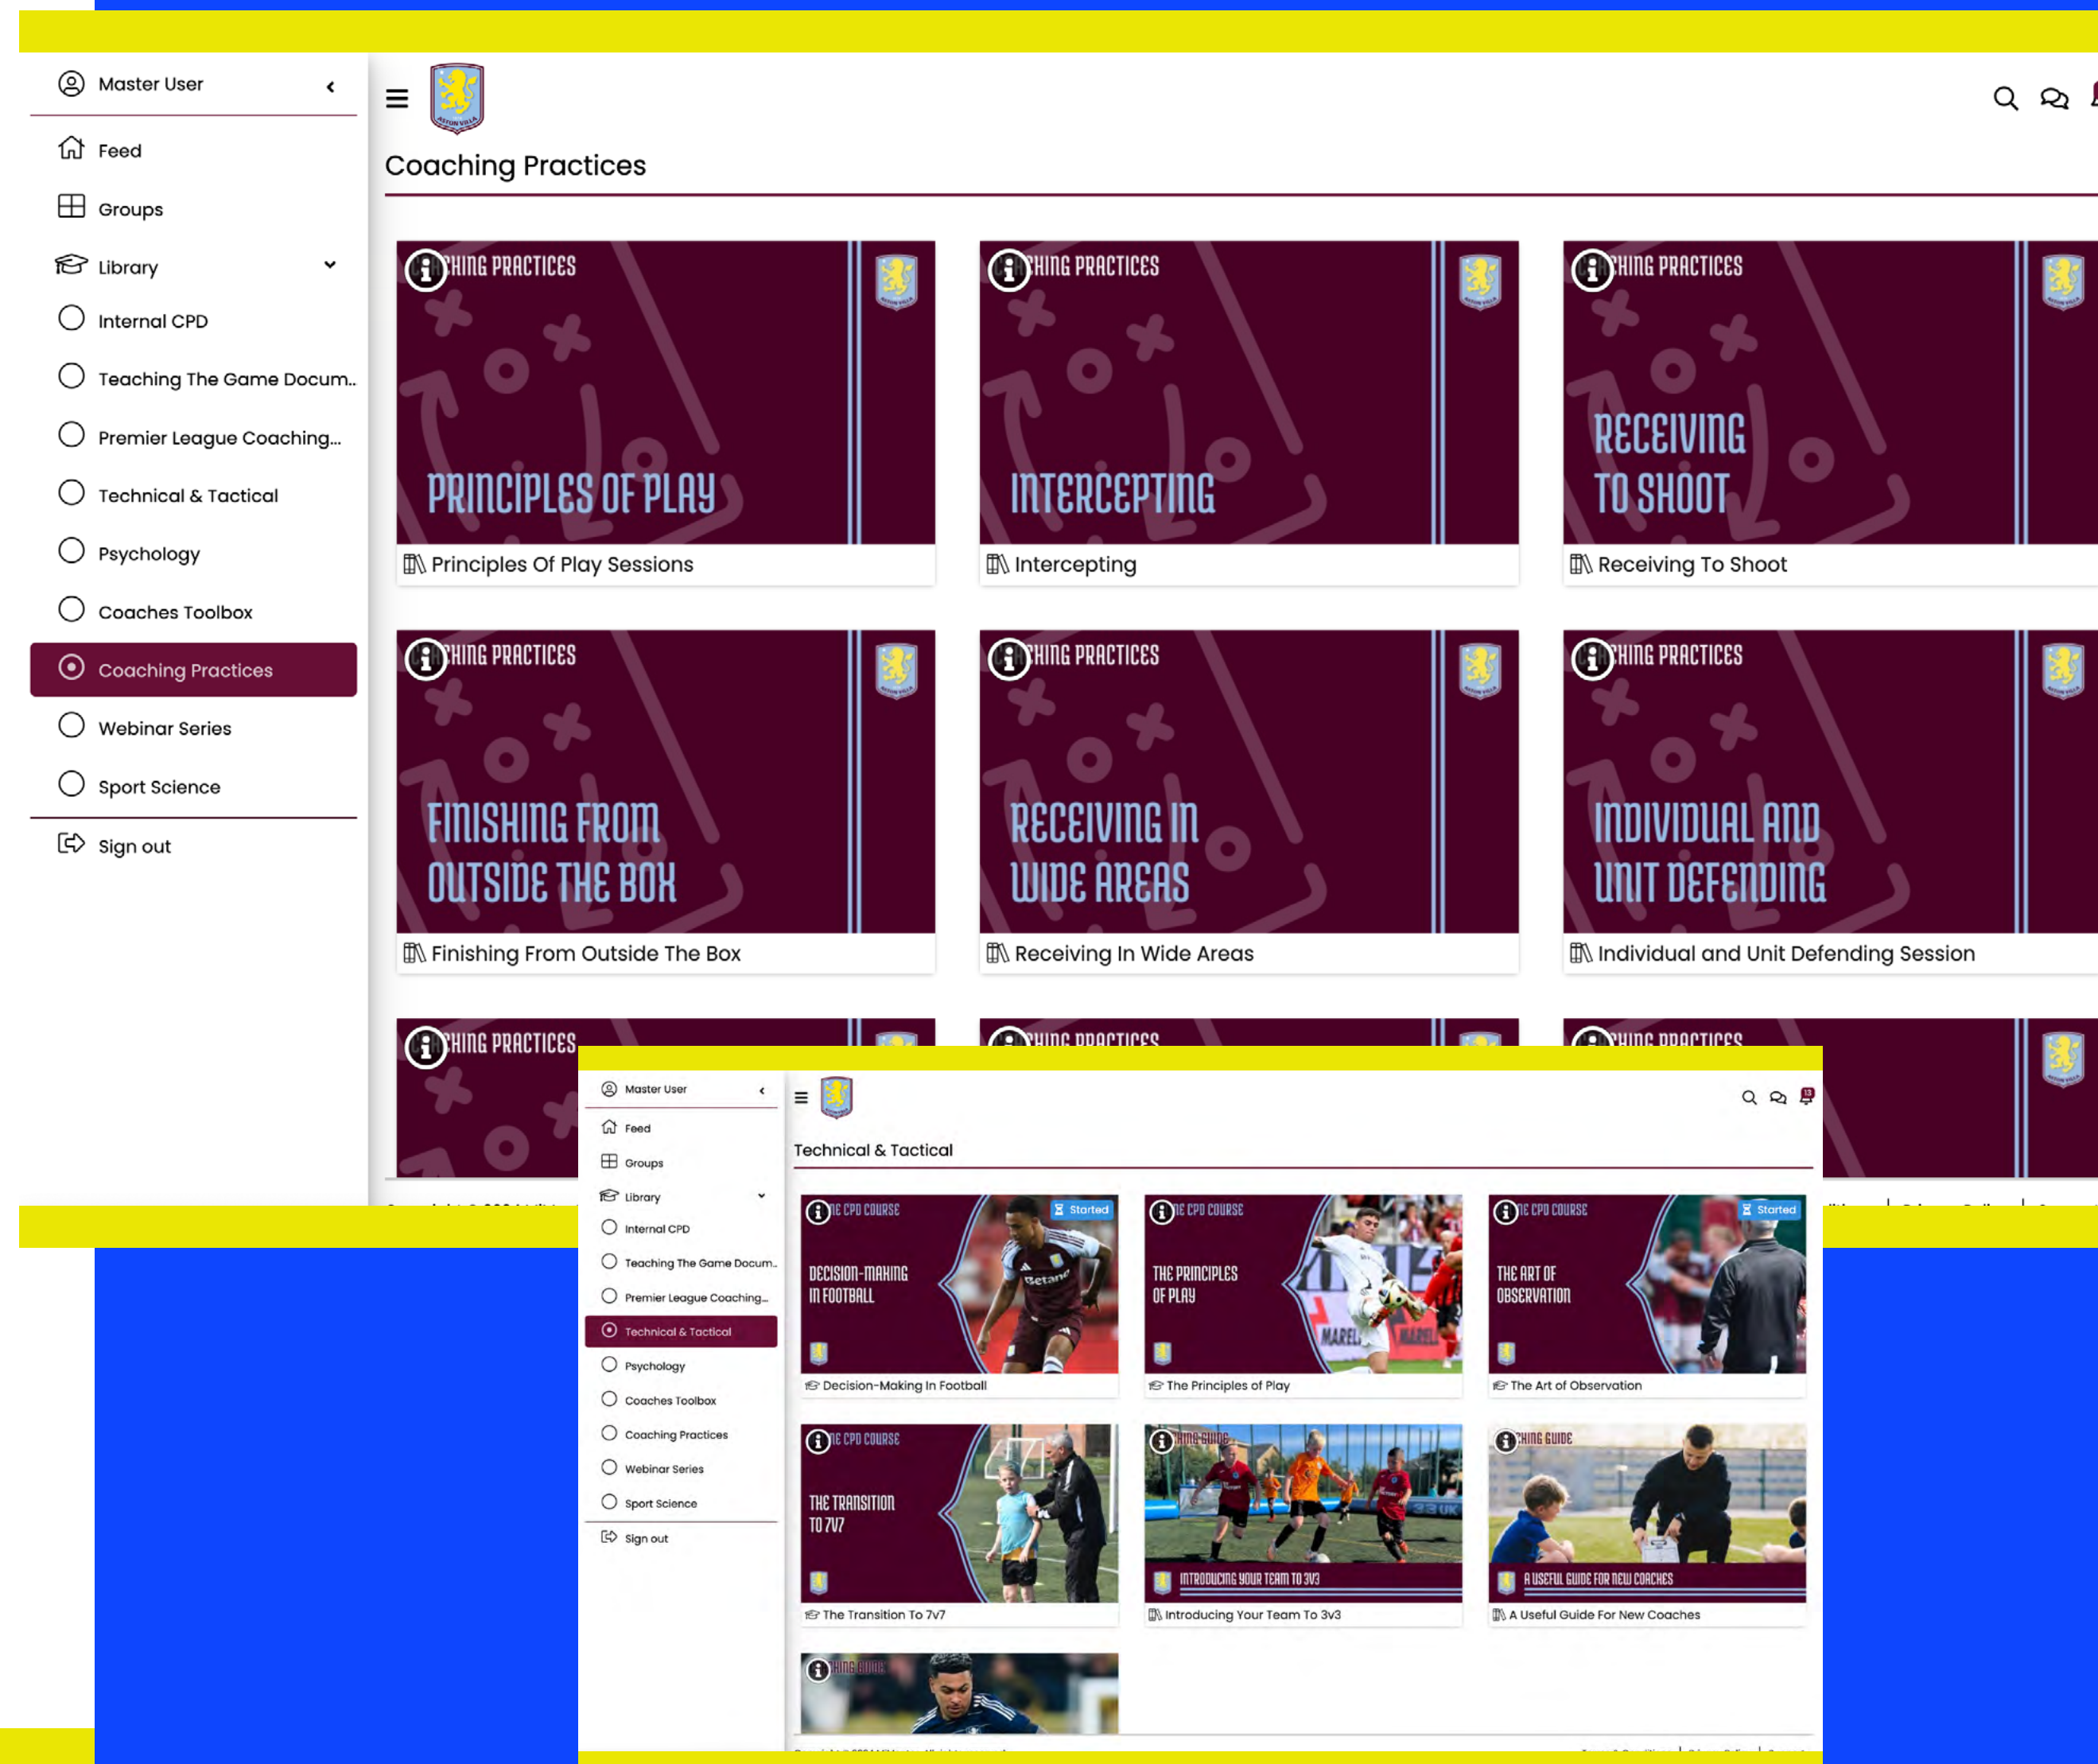

This is your own custom online learning platform.

Users from around the globe have helped us shape a platform solely designed around the needs of coaches and their athletes. It's fully customisable, with a user interface that matches consumer-grade technology.

You can create bespoke learner journeys that reflect what's important to your organisation. You can evaluate progress through the assessment functionality, allowing members to test knowledge and gain certification.

Detailed analytics give you complete insight into engagement and performance, while in-built networking capabilities help create thriving coach communities.

And it can be accessed on-demand, anywhere, at any time and on any device.

Our impact

We are trusted to educate coaches for some of the biggest names in sport globally.

- › We've created a bespoke mentoring course for the PGA
- › Aston Villa use our digital platform and accredited content library for their academy coaches
- › We deliver bespoke content for Surf Soccer Nation through our digital platform
- › All-girls youth US soccer league – the Development Player League (DPL) – use our digital platform and accredited courses for all coaches

3STEP
SPORTS

Utilising technology within coach development has been something I have been very passionate about and successfully integrated into our work for a number of years. Enhancing the opportunity of being remotely attached 24/7 to your coaches and for coaches to be able to access content and CPD at times of their choosing, as well as being part of groups that share best practice and resources, has significantly enhanced personal development since embedding MiMentor into our program. It provides a flexible, accessible approach that also allows us to track and monitor development so ticks every box.

Ryan Maye,
Head of Coach Development,
Aston Villa F.C.

Transform your team

Get ready to drive high-performance and equip sports coaches with holistic tools that deliver lasting, positive impact on athletes at all levels.

We're on hand to help you take your team to the next level. Arrange a meeting where we'll delve into your coaching and mentorship needs, understand your training goals and work with you to build a platform completely tailored to your organisation.

Speak to our team today. James Baker, co-founder:

james@mimentorgroup.com

home.mimentorportal.com